OUR CATHOLIC Heritage I

Name _____

The Passion of Jesus

A cinquain is a five-line poem without rhyming words. An explanation of a cinquain poem and an example are found below.

Explanation	Example
One-word title	Disciples
Two words that describe the title	following, learning
Three action words about the title	listening, praising, believing
Four-word statement about the title	Jesus is our teacher
One word that sums up the title	Believers

Working with a small group of classmates, write a cinquain poem. Base yours on someone you met in today's Gospels stories: the crowd in Jerusalem, Jesus, Judas, Peter, or the disciples.

_____

_____ _____

_____ _____ _____

_____ _____ _____ _____

_____

by:

© RCL Publishing LLC. All rights reserved. Permission to duplicate this page is given to users of Our Catholic Heritage.