

Be My Disciples • Called to Prayer

Grades 4–6

Morning and Evening Prayer

Seasonal Prayers and Blessings for Special Times

General Introduction

Called to Prayer is intended as a guide for prayer with children in grades 4, 5, and 6. The format is designed for children to participate actively in prayer without the need for individual worship aids. This resource makes it possible to always connect class prayer with the liturgical feasts and seasons.

MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER

The Liturgy of the Hours is the public prayer of the whole Church. When it becomes the personal prayer of all Christians, it makes clear the relationship that exists between liturgy and the whole of Christian life. “In it [the Liturgy of the Hours] Christ himself is present, in the assembled community, in the proclamation of God’s word . . . and through it the Church consecrates to God the whole cycle of day and night and the whole range of human activity.” (General Instruction of the Liturgy of the Hours, #13)

As children learn more about the liturgical year of the Church, it is appropriate for them to become more familiar with the official worship of the whole Church. The Liturgy of the Hours is an important part of the public prayer of the Church and is made up of Morning Prayer, Daytime Prayer, Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer.

The morning and evening prayers found in Called to Prayer have been adapted for use with children. They include both Morning and Evening prayer for each of the liturgical seasons of the church year. The morning prayers are intended for day school and daytime religion programs. The evening prayers provide an appropriate prayer option for evening religion programs.

☞ The opening Call to Prayer can be either sung or spoken. The spoken form is included at the beginning of each prayer; an alternative sung version is provided as well.

☞ The Canticle used for morning prayer is different than the one used for evening prayer, although they remain consistent throughout the year. This allows the children to become familiar with these prayers.

☞ The Psalms have been adapted from the psalmody of the various liturgical seasons and are used in a dialogic psalm response style. These responses are simple and easy for children to pray.

☞ Each prayer is planned to take approximately five minutes. It is possible to abbreviate the prayers as time or attention spans require.

SEASONAL PRAYERS AND BLESSINGS

This section provides a variety of seasonal prayers that are appropriate to the cycles of the liturgical year. These can be used as individual prayers or incorporated into other prayer forms and liturgies. A variety of mantras are included which can be prayed in any of several forms.

Children love ritual, and the blessings included here offer opportunities to incorporate ritual blessings into the prayer life of children. The blessings of the Advent wreath, the Christmas tree, the gifts, the doorway at Epiphany, Lenten activities—all these help to sanctify the events of daily life in the context of the liturgical seasons. Abundant use of gestures and symbols, such as water, oil, and signing, enrich the child’s experience and expression of prayer.

PRAYERS AND BLESSINGS FOR SPECIAL TIMES

Included in this section are prayers for various occasions, blessings, and intercessory prayers that can be integrated into the community’s life of prayer with great flexibility.

God, you are my shepherd,
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures

Near restful waters you lead me
to revive my drooping spirit.

You guide me along the right path;
you are true to your name.
You are there with your crook and your staff
with these you give me comfort.

You have prepared a banquet for me.
My head you have anointed with oil.
My cup is overflowing.
Surely your goodness and kindness will be with me always. Amen.
