

Announce Love!

In this chapter, you've learned that Paul taught that love is the greatest virtue. Imagine your parish or school has rented a billboard on the road leading into your town. In the space provided, design a billboard that proclaims Paul's message of love.

