

Leading Us to God

In this chapter, you took a closer look at the Gospel of John. John's writing leads our minds and hearts toward God. The Church leads our minds and hearts toward God too. Use the space provided below to design and decorate a banner sticker that illustrates how the Church leads people to God. After you complete the activity, you might like to share your design with your teacher, catechist or a parish staff person.

