

God Is Love

There are many titles for God, and people all over the world speak to God in their own way. No matter what language we speak, God still hears us and loves us. Many times we hear people say that God is love.

Look at the chart below to see how to say "God is Love" in different languages! Share what you have learned with your friends!

