

Applying the Principles of Catholic Social Teaching

Apply the principles of Catholic Social Teaching to what you learned about the Seventh, Eighth and Tenth Commandments. Write the number of the Commandment next to the Catholic Social Teaching principle listed below.

7th Commandment

"You shall not steal."

8th Commandment

"You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor."

10th Commandment

"You shall not covet your neighbor's goods."

Seven Key Principles Of Catholic Social Teaching

The dignity of the human person

The call to meet our responsibilities to the community and to promote the common good

Basic human rights and the responsibility to see that the rights of others are respected

The option for the poor and vulnerable

The right to decent and productive work

Solidarity with the human family and working for justice for all

Care for God's creation
