

Sharing the Good News

Even after hearing the news that Mary Magdalene, Peter, and John have brought, Jesus' followers were confused and afraid. They gathered in an upper room and locked the doors against the authorities. Read John 20:19-23 to find out what happened next, and what the Apostles were sent to do.

Then, imagine that you are one of Jesus' followers who was present in the locked room. Write about what you would say to family members about what happened.
