

My Future Work of Discipleship

1. After the children have read the story of Saint Katharine Drexel, invite them to reflect for a few moments on what it would be like to do the work of a missionary. Ask them to imagine what would be enjoyable about being a priest, a nun, or a religious brother. What would be hard about it?
2. Then ask them to imagine themselves doing such missionary work. Tell them to jot down their answers to five questions:
 - a. Who would they serve?
 - b. What would they do?
 - c. Where would they do this work?
 - d. Why is this their choice?
3. Invite volunteers to share their ideas. When all have shared what they imagined, ask them to pray the Vocation Prayer on page 259 of their books together.
